

Dollars for Diapers campaign starts strong

Post-Crescent Media 7:04 a.m. CDT May 16, 2015

The Post-Crescent's Dollars for Diapers campaign has started off on the right foot. In just six days, we raised $925, thanks to your generosity.

The Post-Crescent Media Do It! Community Challenge, which supports the Fox Cities Diaper Bank, launched on Mother's Day with a fundraising goal of $60,000. You have until Father's Day, June 21, to help us support families that can't afford diapers for their babies.

Your donations will be matched by our generous partners. J.J. Keller Foundation, United Way Fox Cities, Thrivent Financial, Kimberly-Clark and U.S. Venture will each match up to $5,000. Together, Fox Communities, Prospera, Evergreen, Badger Globe, Thrivent Financial, Unison and St. Elizabeth Employees credit unions will match up to $10,000.

Donations can be made at cfoxvalley.org or by following the information on our Dollars for Diapers ads.

If you prefer to donate packages of diapers — even open packs are OK — and supplies, we're collecting those for the Diaper Bank as well. You can drop them off in our lobby at 306 W. Washington St. in Appleton. Other collection sites include Badger Globe, Evergreen, Fox Communities, Prospera and St. Elizabeth Employees credit unions.
