APPLETON (WLUK) -- A big boost came Friday to the Fox Cities Diaper Bank.

Kimberly Clark donated 130,000 diapers.

It's in response to the recent diaper theft at a Valley Packaging storage facility.

The United Way of the Fox Cities says support from the community has been incredible.

"It has been truly overwhelming to see the response from the community, generate corporate support that we get. We've had people stopping by our office and dropping off diapers, we're receiving checks," said Nanci Micke of the United Way Fox Cities. "So all over the country people have responded to the need that we have."

Two men have been charged with stealing more than 1,700 cases of diapers from the diaper bank's storage facility.

The diapers were valued at $45,000.
