The American Red Cross in Northeast Wisconsin is dedicated to providing relief to victims of disasters and in helping people prevent, prepare for and respond to emergencies. Encompassing the Northeast corner of the state of Wisconsin and reaching the Upper Peninsula, the chapter services 20 counties including Calumet, Outagamie and Winnebago Counties. The Oshkosh office serves as the headquarters for the Northeast Wisconsin Chapter. Along with the main office in Oshkosh, local community service branch offices play an integral part in assisting families during times of disaster such as house fires, tornados and floods.

In addition to responding to local disasters and meeting the emergency needs of victims, Red Cross offers a wide range of training programs from community disaster preparedness to first aid and nursing assistant training. The Chapter also provides emergency communication between local families and their deployed military family members, pre and post-deployment support, and provides life-saving training through health and safety classes.

As of July 1, 2011, the Outagamie, Neenah-Menasha, East Central, Lakeland and Manitowoc/Calumet Chapters consolidated forming the Northeast Wisconsin Chapter. While all programs and services remain local, the unification provides a stronger network, reduces back-office functions and ensures the donor dollar stretches farther.

Non-Profit Affordable Housing Based Rental Services (NAHBRS) is a non-profit agency created by the Outagamie County Housing Authority and Outagamie County Senior Housing Inc. (OCSHI). While the Outagamie County Housing Authority provides affordable rental housing, NAHBRS provides the necessary supportive services to the low-income residents.

The Transportation Shuttle Program is as an affordable on-call transportation service addressing the needs of low income, elderly and persons with disabilities residing in the Fox Valley area, primarily in rural Outagamie County. The program relies on wheelchair accessible vans and two part-time drivers. Without this program, individuals residing in more remote locations would experience some hardship in getting to their medical appointments or perhaps forgoing care because of a lack of transportation. This program also provides an opportunity for more involvement in social and community events.

The Sexual Assault Crisis Center (SACC) was created to help survivors of all forms of sexual abuse and their families and affected friends. A client may have experienced a recent sexual assault, past sexual assault, incest, sexual harassment or sexual exploitation. Staff and trained volunteer advocates provide crisis support 24 hours a day, every day of the year. SACC's free and confidential services include a 24-hour crisis hotline, victim advocacy during medical exams and criminal court proceedings, support groups for children, adolescents, adults and family members, short-term crisis counseling, sexual abuse prevention education, in-service training and workplace programs. SACC's goal is to end sexual violence through prevention and education. Until that goal is achieved, the organization insures that victims of sexual assault or sexual abuse receive support and care to help them find hope and healing and empower them to survive as stronger people.

The YMCA of the Fox Cities, a non-profit organization, seeks to put Christian principles into practice through programs that promote the health of spirit, mind and body through the implementation of core values of caring, honesty, respect and responsibility. YMCA operates regionally through five locations in the Fox Valley area.

Programs funded by United Way include childcare, after school programming, services for older adults and persons with special needs and youth and family programming. The YMCA is the largest child care provider in the Fox Cities. This comprehensive program serves families with infants through school age children and includes day care, drop-in, pre-school, before and after school programs as well as summer school age care and day camps. Older Adult programs motivate and encourage seniors to be active and healthy as well as foster social connections. During the summer the YMCA also operates Camp Hope, a two-week day camp at Plamann Park for children with disabilities. Youth and Family programming provides opportunities for parents to enroll their children in preschool readiness programs as well as physical, social and educational programs. No person is denied the benefits of a YMCA membership or program because of financial limitations. The YMCA of the Fox Cities has over 33,000 members and an additional 15,000 program participants. The YMCA is one of seven YMCAs from throughout the country that has been selected to participate in the Activate America and Pioneering Healthier Communities initiatives.

Successfully launched in 2011, the Fox Cities Diaper Bank serves as a viable option for families struggling to meet the basic need of diapers for their children. The mission of the diaper bank is to raise the community's awareness of the need for diapers and to assist low income families in meeting their diaper needs. The diaper bank collects, stores, and helps distribute diapers to struggling low income families. Diapers are obtained through financial and diaper donations. Valley Packaging Industries provides the necessary storage space. The diapers collected and purchased through the Fox Cities Diaper Bank are distributed to families in need through about 12 local agencies including The Salvation Army Fox Cities, St. Joseph Food Program, Hortonville Community Food Pantry, and Community 2000 located in Seymour.

The Connector

United Way's Providing Basic Needs and Self-Sufficiency Impact Area, in partnership with Valley Transit, created "The Connector." This initiative addresses the needs of low-income individuals relying on public transportation for employment purposes. The Connector increases transportation options for second and third shift workers by offering rides during Valley Transit's off hours or rides to and from destinations outside of Valley Transit's normal service area. The expanded geographic areas and operating hours are provided through a contracted service arrangement between Valley Transit and a local transportation provider.

United Way's PATH (Providing Access to Healing) for Students

United Way's Promoting Health, Healing and Crisis Intervention Impact Area, in collaboration with Catalpa Health, Family Services of Northeast Wisconsin and Lutheran Social Services of Wisconsin and Upper Michigan, offers United Way's PATH for Students. PATH improves access to mental health therapy for area youth by providing school-based services. Services are offered in selected schools in the Appleton, Freedom, Hortonville, Kaukauna, Kimberly, Little Chute, Menasha, Neenah, Seymour and Shiocton school districts. PATH focuses on those students experiencing barriers to care elsewhere in the community such as limited of financial resources, parent work schedules, lack of reliable transportation, cultural attitudes and the stigma associated with mental illness.
