We are so proud of the work we’ve been able to accomplish together over the past 75 years—and with your ongoing commitment, we are confident together we will continue to build a stronger, more caring community for everyone.

Over the past 75 years, approximately $165 million from generous donors has been invested into the community by dedicated volunteers, making a meaningful difference through our family of annually-funded nonprofit partners.

We serve 3 counties: northern Calumet, all of Outagamie & northern Winnebago.
